CONCEPT EXHIBITION

This summer will open in Tel Aviv's vibrant Neve Tzedek neighbourhood (Rehov Lilienblum 3) the new Ermanno Tedeschi Gallery. With its three successful venues in Rome, Milan and Turin, the Ermanno Tedeschi Gallery is already a well-established presence in the Italian artistic landscape. Now, with the addition of its fourth location, Ermanno Tedeschi Gallery – directed by Simona Di Nepi - sets to boost its international vocation.

To mark the launch of this new venture - made possible by the collaboration with Ermanno Tedeschi of Jenny Hannuna and Joseph Matalon - a select number of artists from Europe, United States, the Far East and Israel, will present works on the themes of globalisation, mobility, and the crumbling of territorial borders. The exhibits will therefore challenge visitors to reflect on the loosening of material and cultural boundaries that exist between people and ideas.

.WORLD, curated by Luca Beatrice, will feature the creations of fourteen artists from across the globe (for full list see next page). This group exhibition is designed to trace a common denominator in a wide range of expressive languages - from painting to photography, from sculpture and installation to video art. The common thread is the international dimension of contemporary life which, by taking down society's physical boundaries, encourages the contamination of languages, while still allowing each culture to retain its own specific traits.

.WORLD will be accompanied by a fully illustrated catalogue, with texts by Luca Beatrice and Arturo Schwarz.
